ALUMNI AVENUE - REMINISCING WITH FRIENDS OLD AND NEW
Alumni, family and friends joined students on Alumni Avenue to celebrate homecoming, reminisce with old and new friends, and honor traditions of the University's rich history. The evening highlights included the festive Homecoming parade, boat burning ceremony, spectacular firework show, food from around the world, music, and activities for all.

ULM ALUMNUS NAMED TO WHITE HOUSE POST

Reince Priebus, a Miami Law alumnus and chairman of the Republican National Committee, has been tapped to be White House chief of staff for President-elect Donald J. Trump. A Wisconsin native, Priebus graduated from the University of Miami School of Law cum laude with a J.D. degree in 1998. First elected chairman of the RNC in 2011, he is credited with deftly reorganizing the RNC and digging it out of financial turmoil. As chief of staff, Priebus is being looked upon as a positive connector between the Republican establishment and the Trump White House. | Read more.
