Hurricanes Football

A Season Worth Talking About

Hurricanes Football has had an impressive 2017 season. The 10-game winning streak included upsets against FSU, Virginia Tech and Notre Dame. Coach Mark Richt and his team not only brought Miami back into mainstream conversation, they also revived the U's signature swagger. The introduction of the quintessential Miami Turnover Chain would not have been quite as cool if we didn't have a formidable defense, reminiscent of the 90's and early 2000's, to back it up.

Now with an ACC Championship on the line, no doubt Miami will muster up the drive they have had all season long and bring their A-game against the Clemson Tigers in North Carolina Saturday night. Go Canes!!
