UM launches COVID-19 clinical trials

Vice President Mike Pence visited the University of Miami Miller School of Medicine on Aug. 5 for the university's leadership in launching the first Phase 3 clinical trial of a COVID-19 vaccine.

Reopening our campus

For this crusader, the flight for equality is a lifelong endeavor

Donald Spivey, a distinguished professor of American history who has championed civil rights since his days growing up in Chicago, has been named the special advisor to President Julio Frenk on racial justice.

Longtime University of Miami alumna and benefactor passes away

A longtime philanthropist—who met her lifelong partner, Allan Herbert, at the University in 1954—Patti Herbert gave generously to numerous causes that advanced academics and student life.

Academics

Reopening our campus

In a recent message to the University community, President Frenk outlined the University of Miami's adaptive and responsive approach to resuming classes.

Athletics

Fall football games to begin in September

University of Miami's Director of Athletics announces plans for fall sports.

Fall football games to begin in September

University of Miami expert Neil Hammerschlag will appear in a series of Shark Week episodes for the fifth year in a row.

Toppel launches new project-sharing platform

New platform allows alumni and students to gain real-world experience through short-term projects posted online.

For a complete list of events open to alumni, please see here.

Useful links

Add your business to our ‘Cane Biz directory.
Do you have a story to share? Email us.