Celebrating Black excellence

The University of Miami Black alumni society invites you to "Our Story: Black Excellence" a three-day virtual reunion featuring forums centered on building wealth, health, and education, led by prominent institutional, student, and alumni leaders.

With an impressive line-up of speakers including Dr. Donald Spivey, special advisor to the president for racial justice, Dr. Laura Kohn-Wood, dean of the School of Education and Human Development, and Dr. Henri Ford, dean of the Miller School of Medicine, the event is sure to promote conversations that increase awareness and help ignite change.
